THE FLAGG MINERAL FOUNDATION!
Invitation is to anyone interested in minerals, mining, or preserving Arizona's rich mineral and mining heritage

The Flagg Mineral Foundation (FMF) was formed in 1962 as a memorial to Arthur L. Flagg, who enriched the mineral-collecting experience for many hobbyists. His extensive knowledge of minerals and mining in Arizona earned him the title of "Mr. Rockhound." Mr. Flagg founded the Mineralogical Society of Arizona, the Small Mine Operators Association, and co-founded the Rocky Mountain Federation of Mineralogical Societies.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- One-year subscription to the FMF News
- Invitation and discounts for special FMF events such as the Minerals of Arizona Symposium
- Free admission with FMF membership card to (1) The Mineral Museum at the Flandrau Science Center on the campus of the University of Arizona in Tucson and (2) The Superstition Mountain Museum in Apache Junction
- Invitation to members'-only mineral pre-sales and field trips

The Flagg Mineral Foundation maintains a world-wide mineral collection of over 800 exceptional specimens, 45% of which are Arizona minerals, which is the main focus. The collection started with the acquisition of other collections and showcase specimens. Because the Arizona Mining and Mineral Museum, the former home of the collection, has closed, a part of the collection is now on display at the University of Arizona Mineral Museum at the Flandrau Science Center in Tucson.

In our continuing efforts to preserve, educate, and collect, the Foundation hosts the annual Flagg Gem and Mineral Show. The three-day fund-raising event is a tailgate venue for field collectors, lapidary artists and mineral dealers. The show and parking are free. Many volunteers are needed.

The Foundation hosts in the Spring the annual Minerals of Arizona Symposium featuring speakers on the historical, scientific, and educational aspects of Arizona minerals.

Each year the A.L. Flagg Distinguished Service Award is presented to a member who exemplifies the ideals of A.L. Flagg.
